

ABOUT GURUGRAM

District Gurugram is located 30 km south of National Capital New Delhi, about 10 kilometers from Dwarka sub-city and 268 km south of Chandigarh, the State Capital. Over the past 25 years the city has undergone rapid development and construction. The District is one of Delhi's major satellite cities and is part of the National Capital Region. It is within commuting distance of Delhi via an expressway and Delhi Metro. The District is the second largest city in the Indian State of Haryana and is the industrial and financial center of Haryana. It has the 3rd highest per capita income in India after Chandigarh and Mumbai. It is also the only Indian city to have successfully distributed electricity connections to all its households. It is also the IT hub & centre of various BPO companies.

The District has been in existence since the times of Mahabharata. It is said that Yudhishter, the eldest brother among the pandavas, gave this village to his guru, Dronacharya, whose tank still exists on the west side of the Railway Road. Actual village "GURGAON" is about 1.5 km. away from Gurugram town, where the temple of SHEETLA MATA, attracts devotees in large numbers on every Monday and Tuesday.

Gurugram district has witnessed a phenomenal growth in all spheres of developments, particularly in industry and urbanization. Today, it has become a hub of multinational companies, industries giants, call centres, software companies, shopping malls and skyscrapers. Gurugram is strategically located with its boundaries touching Rajasthan, Uttar Pradesh and Delhi. Its excellent connectivity with other state via Delhi-Jaipur –Ahmedabad broad gauge rail link and NH 8, brings thousands of people to Gurugram for the purpose of work, travel and entertainment. In fact with the collaboration of Suzuki Motors of Japan and Maruti Udyog Limited in early eighties, a new area of rapid industrialization of Gurugram started as a result of which the district came on the international map. Maruti Suzuki is India's Largest passenger car company. The automobile industry of Gurugram is producing passenger cars, motor cycles, scooters and its components. The Gurugram –Manesar-Bawal belt has emerged as the auto hub of the country, thereby offering ample opportunities to the entrepreneurs. There are many prominent and prestigious units involved in the manufacturing of telecommunication equipments, electrical goods, sports goods, rubber products readymade garments and in software development.
